Vulgarity on Cable TV and print media

389. SHRIMATIPREMACARIAPPA: Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have devised any action plan or code of conduct for checking vulgarity on cable TV network and print media; and

(b) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI S. JAIPAL REDDY): (a) and (b) The Cable Television Networks (Regulation) Act, 1995 prescribe that no programme shall be carried through Cable TV Network, provided it conforms to the Programme and Advertisement Codes as defined in the Cable Television Networks Rules, 1994. The Programme and Advertisement Codes cited, inter alia, prohibit vulgarity through cable T.V. network. The Central Government has constituted an Inter-Ministerial Committee under Section 20 of the said Act to look into the violations of the Codes. Cognizance of any violations of the Codes is taken either suo-moto or on receipt of specific complaints by the Committee. Besides, any authorized officer under the aforesaid Act is empowered to prohibit any cable operator from transmitting or re-transmitting any programme or channel if it is not in conformity with the prescribed codes. A meeting is also proposed to be held shortly with stakeholders including women organizations, educations, consumer organisation with broadcasters, cable operators organisation etc., so that the matter can be sensitized on these issues.

As regards print media, the Press in India is free from Government control. In pursuance of its policy to uphold the freedom of the Press, the Government does not interfere with its functioning. However, the Press Council of India is a statutory autonomous body set up under the Press Council Act, 1978 with the twin object of preserving the freedom of the Press and of maintaining and improving the standards of newspapers and news agencies in India. The Council has built "Norms of Journalistic Conduct", which, inter-alia, provide for obsenity and vulgarity to be eschewed and cover principles and ethics with regard to journalism.
